

W'OTSAP in Ottoman and Turkish Studies?

WHAT IS IN A NAME?

A conversation with

FATMA MÜGE GÖÇEK

In addition to supporting the Journal of the Ottoman and Turkish Studies Association, OTSA membership helps support prizes, awards, and scholarships issued to students and scholars on an annual basis.

Call for Submissions 2020 Awards and Prizes

All deadlines for 2020 awards have now passed.

The Ottoman and Turkish Studies (OTSA) is pleased to announce its annual award and prize competitions for 2020. Six award competitions are listed in this announcement. Please read the instructions for each carefully, noting the final date and details for the submission of materials. OTSA encourages scholars and students to apply for awards, and invites teachers to encourage their students to apply as well!

1. M. FUAT KÖPRÜLÜ BOOK PRIZE ($1000)
2. HALİDE EDİP ADIVAR SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION ($1500)
3. THE SYDNEY N. FISHER GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER PRIZE ($200)
4. VANGELIS KECHRIOTIS MEMORIAL TRAVEL GRANT ($500)

Professor Göçek (Univ. of Michigan) was Elected Chair of the American Sociological Association (ASA), Comparative Historical Sociology (CHS) section in 2018-19.

Moderator: Baki Tezcan (University of California, Davis)

Tuesday, December 22, 2020
12 noon (EST) / 9 am (PST) / 8 pm (Istanbul)

Registration link for the webinar:
https://ucdavis.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_XmAoOjBgT16Bi7du4eZfFw